ALMA MATER

Dear to our hearts is our Alma Mater,
Loyal and true are we;
Truest devotion till life is ended,
Wholly we pledge to thee,
Tho' from thy halls far away we wander,
Thoughts back to thee will fly,
And tender mem'ries time cannot sever,
Love that will never die.

Heaven's choicest blessings ever attend thee,
Dear Alma Mater mine—
No shadows harm thee, no fears alarm thee,
Always the sunshine thine.
And tho' we leave thee, we'll never grieve thee,
True to our trust we'll be;
Our best endeavor, now and forever,
Always to honor thee.

—Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Sr.

GRANT OF POWER

from the

PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

I speak on behalf of the Trustees and the Administrative Officers of Anderson College to say that this Handbook is issued by the Student Government Association with full authority as a binding contract and an honorable engagement between the institution and every one of its students. The Student Councils have been elected by popular vote to administer a government which gives to each student the greatest liberty consistent with the best interests of the entire group. But freedom is not license, and individual responsibility is necessary for the maintenance of harmonious group life. The Honor System at Anderson is designed to foster that spirit of responsibility, in preparation for the adult life just around the corner. Rules are a normal part of the civic and social life of any community; here, Student Government regulations serve merely as traffic rules, to keep the days flowing smoothly and to promote a high degree of scholarship.

To the new members of our college family I would like to say that one of the secrets of happy living here is the determination to get from college as much as it is able to give you and to give back in cooperative effort as much as you can. No matter what disparities there may be among you in material possessions or in mental abilities, the greatest art of all is well within the reach of each student—the fine art of gracious living.

TRADITIONS

October Day is a surprise holiday granted by the President of the College when everyone can sing the October Day song.

The Crook Banquet on Hallowe'en introduces the tradition of hiding the crook. Friendly class spirit is shown in an endeavor to see which class will be the possessor of the crook at commencement.

The Christmas Season is ushered in on December first by Christmas First Night. Christmas carols are sung and played in the college dining hall during the month of December. On the Sunday evening just before the Christmas holidays the college choir presents a Yuletide Vesper Service.

Founders Day is observed February 14th. This is the date on which the charter of the college was granted by the State Department of South Carolina.

Sunshine Sister Week supplies a note of interest and piquancy during first semester examinations.

The Annual Birthday Banquet is held in the dining hall early in the second semester. Table birthday parties are held as birthdays arrive.

On the morning of May first every one finds that some unknown friend has left at her door a May Day basket. The May Day Festival is given in the campus amphitheater early in the month of May. This fete is attended by a large number of high school seniors and out-of-town visitors.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I—Name

The name of this organization shall be the Student Government Association of Anderson College, of which there shall be two autonomous branches, to be known as the Resident Association and the Town Association.

ARTICLE II—Object

The object of this Association shall be to foster student interests and activities, to maintain a high standard of scholarship and of honor among students, to administer regulations, and to transact business pertaining to the student body.

ARTICLE III—Membership

All undergraduates of Anderson College shall become members of this Association upon matriculating and paying the annual dues of $1.00. All alumnae may be associate members having the power of discussion but no vote.

ARTICLE IV—Meetings

Section 1. Of the Association

The Resident Association shall hold regular meetings on the first and third Mondays of each month. The Town Association shall hold regular meetings on the second and fourth Mondays, of each month. Joint meeting of the two branches may be held on fifth Mondays, or upon request. Additional meetings of either Association may be called by the President of either branch at any time or upon the written request of ten members.

Section 2. Of the Councils

The Resident Council and the Town Council shall each hold regular meetings at stated times to carry on their executive functions, and to prepare the current business to be discussed at their respective Associations.

ARTICLE V—Executive DepartmentSection 1. Councils

The executive power of the Student Government Association shall be vested in two autonomous councils, to be known as the Resident Council and the Town Council.

Section 2. Officers

The Resident Council shall consist of eleven officers: A President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, two House Presidents, a Fire Chief, two Representatives from the Sophomore Class, and two Representatives from the Freshman Class.

The Town Council shall consist of eight officers: A President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, two Representatives from the Sophomore Class, and two Representatives from the Freshman Class.

Section 3. Nomination and Election

All nominees for Student Government offices shall be Collegiannes. All nominations shall be made by a Nominating Committee and approved by the Faculty Executive Committee. The Nominating Committee, of which the President of one Association shall be the chairman and the President of the other Association shall be the vice-chairman, shall consist of one representative chosen by each of the following organizations: the Resident Council, the Town Council, the Baptist Student Union, the Yodler staff, the Columns staff, the Women's Athletic Association, the Sophomore Class, and the Freshman Class, with the Dean as adviser. Each member shall confer with the officers and the sponsor of her organization to obtain their recommendations for nominees. The Nominating Committee shall meet early in the fourth quarter of the school year; the election shall take place one week later, the names of the nominees having been posted throughout that week. Students shall register by signing their names, and shall vote by secret ballot at a place designated by the Councils. The members of the two Councils shall be inaugurated as promptly as possible thereafter. In the case of the Freshman Representatives, two shall early in the second semester be elected by each Council, from six nominations for each chosen by their respective Associations. These Representatives shall serve until the annual election, when they may be elected to other offices, failing which they shall remain as Representatives. Vacancies occurring on either Council shall be filled by appointment of the Faculty Executive Committee.

Section 4. Duties of Officers

1. The president shall preside over all meetings of her branch of the Association and Council; shall call any meeting which she may consider necessary; shall make all appointments needed for the administrative functions of the Councils and the Collegiannes; shall summon before the Council as need arises any member of her Association.
2. The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in the absence of or at the request of the President; the two Vice-Presidents shall serve as co-chairmen of the Social Standards Board.
3. The Secretary shall preserve all the records of her branch of the Association; shall keep a list of the members of the Association; shall prepare and read the minutes of the Association; shall post or announce to the student body all penalties for offenses; shall notify the Administration of restrictions which are to be communicated to parents.

4. The Treasurer shall have charge of all the funds of her branch of the Association; shall keep a record of receipts and expenditures and present it to the Association at the session preceding the inauguration of the newly elected Councils; the Resident Treasurer shall keep a record of the Student Emergency Loan Fund.
5. The House Presidents shall at each meeting of the Association appoint Proctors to serve until the next meeting, shall instruct them in their duties, shall see that they perform these duties and assist them when necessary; shall attend to the ringing of bells for study hour, recreation, lights, Sunday school, and quiet hour; shall keep a record of church cuts and excuses; shall maintain a Spend-the-Night book; shall serve on the Social Standards Board; shall be responsible for the good order at all times of their Houses.
6. The Fire Chief shall be in charge of a system of fire drills to minimize the danger of fire, at least one drill being held in each quarter with all students required to participate; she shall appoint Captains and Lieutenants to assist her in this work, shall instruct them, and shall receive their reports at each drill; she shall inform the Dean of the time schedule for each fire drill; she shall report to the Student Government Association any misdemeanors occurring during fire drills.
7. Each Representative shall perform the duties assigned to her by her Council.

ARTICLE VI—Administrative Department

The administrative power shall be vested in the Councils, the CollegiAnnes, the Proctors, the Marshals, and the Social Standards Board.

ARTICLE VII—Legislative Department

The legislative power shall be vested in the Student Government Association as a whole, subject to the Faculty Executive Committee.

Amendments to the Constitution may be proposed by the Councils, or in writing by ten members of the Association, with the approval of the Faculty Executive Committee. An amendment shall be presented to the Association for consideration two weeks before it is to be voted upon, and shall require a two-thirds vote of the membership for its adoption.

ARTICLE VIII—Judicial Department

The judicial power shall be vested in a Joint Council composed of the Faculty Executive Committee and either student Council, or, in a matter touching the entire student body, in a Tri-Council composed of the Faculty Executive Committee, the Resident Council, and the Town Council.

ARTICLE IX—Honor System and Honor Society

Section 1 CollegiAnnes

The self-governing members of the Student Government Association who are bound by the Honor System shall be called CollegiAnnes. They shall be appointed by the Joint Council of each Association at the end of each Quarter, except that new students shall be in residence for one semester before becoming eligible for membership; they shall be inducted at a joint Association meeting. The qualifications for membership shall be: 1.

Socially approved conduct; 2. A spirit of willingness to serve; 3. Adequacy of scholarship, being the grade required at graduation for recommendation; 4. Willingness to take and to live by the pledge of self-government.

Section 2. The Denmark Society

At the end of the year, those Sophomores who have lived honorably, who have contributed much to their school community, and who have maintained excellent scholastic records shall be elected by the Faculty Executive Committee to membership in the Denmark Society; they shall be known as Danes.

ARTTICLE X—Faculty Executive Committee

The Faculty Executive Committee shall consist of the President of the College, the Dean, the Student Counselor, and one other member appointed by the President of the College. All rules, regulations, and decisions of the Councils and of the Association shall be subject to the approval of this Committee.

BY-LAWS

I. Administrative Functions of Council Members

One or more members of the Resident Council, appointed by the President of the Resident Association, shall each week-end be in charge of the reception of guests, to serve with the Dean's staff, to supervise the CollegiAnnes who are on duty, and to ring the bells for the close of receiving hours.

II. CollegiAnnes

The students who are bound by the Honor System at Anderson College are called CollegiAnnes; they have greater responsibilities than the students under Student Government regulations only, and also additional prerogatives, as detailed in Class Privileges. CollegiAnnes at their induction sign a pledge of self-government, and keep the signed card upon their doors as a constant reminder of their responsibilities. The pledge is as follows:

In recognition of the trust which has been placed in me as a CollegiAnne, I promise to strive to keep constantly in mind the Anderson College Ideal as an expression of the spirit of the college; to endeavor to uphold truth, honor, and service as positive virtues in my character; and to make student government true self-government.

Each CollegiAnne is bound by honor not only to keep the college regulations herself, but also to maintain the college standards at a high ethical level. The etiquette of reporting a failure to maintain standards on the part of a classmate is as follows. There are two methods which a CollegiAnne may pursue: 1. Requesting another CollegiAnne to accompany her, she may go to the suspected student and ask her to report herself, giving warning that if this is not done, the two CollegiAnnes will turn in the report; or 2. She may report the offense directly to a member of the suspected student's Council, signifying her own readiness to appear as a witness at the Student Government investigation. No anonymous reports will ever be received or acted upon: CollegiAnnes are required to act openly and to serve as witnesses. The types of offenses to be reported will in general fall into the following categories:

1. Cheating on the preparation of assignments or on tests.
2. Stealing.
3. Lying in an official investigation or an official written statement like a register, a dating blank, or an absence blank.
4. Breaking chaperonage rules on or off the campus in the city of Anderson.
5. Leaving the campus without signing out.
6. Smoking without permission.
7. Drinking alcoholic beverages.
8. Damaging property.
9. Visiting during study hours.

Failure to report an offense is itself an offense, and may entail suspension or expulsion from the CollegiAnnes, according to the seriousness of the incident. A CollegiAnne who fails to maintain the qualifications for membership, as detailed in Article IX of the Constitution, will likewise be subject to suspension or expulsion from the CollegiAnnes.

Two or more CollegiAnnes appointed by the President of the Resident Association, shall each week-end serve as receptionists; they shall be instructed and supervised by a member of the Resident Council. Sophomore CollegiAnnes who manifest the requisite qualities will be given a special course of training and will be asked to share with the Council members the duties of student chaperonage.

III. Proctors

The duties of the Proctors shall be:

1. To maintain order in their sections at all times.
2. To inspect within five minutes of the ringing of study hour and light bells and to give penalty points to those students who do not obey the regulations.
3. To make a daily written report to their House President of penalty points given, or of good order within their sections.

Any proctor who is absent from her section for any length of time or who is unable for any reason to perform her duties shall secure a substitute and shall report the name of the latter to her House President. Failure to report a misdemeanor is itself a misdemeanor to be punished by the House President with the penalty for the unreported offense.

IV. Marshals

There shall be two Sophomore Marshals and two Freshman Marshals, one of whom in each class shall be a resident student and the other a town student, to be elected by their respective Student Government Associations at the beginning of the school year.

The duties of the Marshals shall be:

1. To keep a record of attendance at Student Government Association meetings, and at entertainments at which attendance is required.
2. To report to their respective Councils any absences or any misconduct at such meetings.
3. To serve as ushers when needed.

V. Social Standards Board

There shall be a Social Standards Board of six members, of which the Vice-Presidents of the Resident Association and of the Town Association shall be co-chairmen, the one presiding whose fellow Association member is before the Board for instruction. The other members of the Board shall be the two House Presidents of the Resident Association, and two town students appointed by the Town Council.

The duties of the Board shall be:

1. To maintain the manners of the entire student body at a high level, by means of group discussions, group or private teaching, demonstrations, or any other means in its power to attain the desired result.
2. To instruct any student who has been reported to the Board for failure in manners.
3. To report to the proper student council any student who, after adequate instruction, is persistent in misconduct.

COLLEGE REGULATIONS

Absences from the College

1. The permission of the Dean is required for all absences from the college other than those specified under Class Privileges. In case family emergencies arise which necessitate absence from one or more classes, the student is required to request her parents to send to the Dean their permission for her absence from class; whenever the nature of the family emergency will permit, this permission should be mailed to the Dean well in advance of the time at which the student expects to leave the college. Students who abuse any special privileges granted in connection with family emergencies will be deprived of all long week-end privileges for the following semester. Absences exceeding the number of times a class meets a week, in all cases except those involving prolonged illness of three days or more, will even when excused carry a reduction in grades.

If a student fails to return to the college at the time at which she is expected, she is required to have her parents notify the Dean promptly by letter or wire, explaining the reason for her absence. Such notification should be sent in time to reach the Dean by the time at which the student is expected at the college.

3. For the instructors' records, the student must file in the Library an absence blank for each class which she has missed, on the first day of her return to classes following the absence. If the instructor receives no report on the absence by the time the student returns to class for the second time after the absence, it is marked unexcused and the student is penalized, even though she may have had an acceptable excuse for absence. The parents of day students who have had an excessive number of absences will be notified that only written excuses mailed by the parents to the Dean will be excused thereafter.

3. An unexcused absence on the day before or after any holiday or on the day of a previously announced test will carry a reduction of four points in the class grade for the semester. Unexcused absences not only carry a reduction in grades, but in accordance with Student Government regulations inflict two penalty points for each absence.
4. Students may only with the Dean's permission change class or laboratory schedules to go to town or to make longer week-end visits.
5. Students shall be in class and in chapel not later than five minutes after the ringing of the bell. Three unexcused tardies count as one unexcused absence.

Activities

1. An activities calendar is kept by the Dean; on it shall be registered the regular meetings of the various organizations and all entertainments and social events. Evening entertainments shall be scheduled for Friday or Saturday whenever it is possible to do so.
2. Rehearsals or preparations which interrupt the evening study hour will be allowed only on the evening preceding the event, unless special permission is secured from the Dean. A student who is not making a passing grade may not take part in any entertainment which requires extensive preparation. A student excused from classes in the forenoon because of illness may not exercise social privileges during the afternoon or evening.

Automobile Riding

The conditions under which a college may permit students to ride in private cars must necessarily differ from those under which parents may with a greater degree of safety sanction this activity. We quote from the handbook of Stephens College: "Stephens as an institution is not in a position to assume responsibility for each student to ride in cars. As there are certain physical and social risks involved, it is impossible for the students to have the freedom which they are allowed to have at home, where the parents know not only the people with whom they ride but also the community and places where they visit." Anderson College students may ride in private cars only under the conditions outlined below:

1. With parents or immediate relatives.
2. With members of the faculty, staff, or trustees of the college.
3. With parents of roommate, of suitemates, or of other students, or with adult town hostesses, provided that a general permission from their parents is on file in the Dean's office.
4. With women acquaintances to and from town, provided that a general permission from their parents is on file in the Dean's office.
5. With church members who invite them to ride back to the college after church.
6. CollegiAnnes may ride unchaperoned with an escort to and from a destination in Anderson only, provided that their parents have indicated their approval of the specific man on a special CollegiAnne permission blank, and that the Dean has approved the plans filed by the student.

7. Students may secure permission from the Dean for any reasonable request not covered by the regulations given above.
8. Because of the social risk involved, students may leave the college in a taxi only with the knowledge and consent of the Dean.

Church Attendance

Students attend in Anderson the church and Sunday school for which they registered on their application blanks. Those excused for illness shall remain in the infirmary until 5:00 P. M. Three cuts a semester are allowed from church and Sunday school; three visits a semester are allowed for attending churches other than the one for which the student is registered; cuts and visits not used the first semester may not be left over for use the second semester. Church cuts must be reported to the House President before dinner time on Sunday in order not to be accounted as unexcused absences. Church visits are recorded by signing visiting slips in the Dean's office before the close of the Sunday morning office hour.

Dancing

Students may attend socials at Clemson if their parents have signified their approval on the general permission blank on file in the Dean's office. When dancing is included only those students may dance whose parents have given their consent on the general permission blank. Students expecting to attend the big dances at Clemson, such as the Autumn Ball or the Mid-Winter, must notify the Dean's office in time to have a special permission blank sent home and returned; permissions by telephone are not acceptable.

Dean's List

To make the Dean's List a student must carry fifteen hours a week of college work and must earn during her entire course of study 2.50 quality points for each semester hour of credit, which is a B+ average. The grade of A gives three quality points for each semester hour of credit; B gives two; C gives one; D gives no quality credit.

Dining Hall

Attendance at breakfast is optional. Students shall be in the dining hall for lunch and dinner unless excused, but Saturday evening supper is optional. Five minutes are allowed for getting to the dining hall.

Drinking

Any student known to be under the influence of alcohol or to have alcoholic drinks in her possession while under the jurisdiction of the college will be subject to expulsion.

Dormitory Regulations

GENERAL ORDER—Students are responsible for complying with the room regulations posted in each suite.

Shades must be drawn at night when lights are turned on; they should be raised when windows are opened for air while sleeping, and should be kept raised during the day, as natural light is better for the eyes (and for electric light bills!) than artificial light.

A student should not enter another girl's room when she is out.

Permission must be obtained from the house manager for moving furniture from one room to another.

Laundry is sent out and paid for by students, who are to comply with the instructions given by the matron.

VALUABLES AND LOST ARTICLES—The college is not responsible for money and valuables left in rooms: they should be placed in the college bank or vault. Lost articles should be advertised on the bulletin board; articles found in or near the college buildings should be taken to the Dean's office.

ROOMMATES—One should not form too hasty a judgment of one's roommate; her first impression may be disappointing, too. Early in the school year a "moving day" is appointed for those who wish to room with friends whom they have made; it is wise to wait for that day, and to use the time to get acquainted with many classmates. Neither a borrower nor a lender be!

CLOTHING—Students must dress on special occasions in accordance with the regulations given by the Dean. A white dress will be needed for use on various occasions. "Undress" garments such as house coats and bed-room shoes may not worn off the dormitory hall except during recreation hour in the evening. Curlers and hair nets may be worn off the dormitory halls only when drying hair in the back court and on Friday afternoons by the fire in the colonnade; kerchiefs and turbans may not be worn to chapel, classes, or meals except Saturday evening supper. Dressing should be finished before leaving one's room.

RADIOS—Radios may be played at any time between rising and light bells outside of morning school hours and evening study hours, and also during Quiet Hour on Sunday, provided that they are kept low enough not to disturb people outside of the room and well away from open windows. A fee of $2.00 a semester must be paid to the college before the installation of a radio. Radios must be turned off when students leave their rooms.

ILLNESS—All cases of illness should be reported immediately to the nurse. Absences of resident students from classes or required appointments because of illness will be excused only through the nurse. A student should never serve meals to sick students; the nurse will attend to this. All appointments with dentists and other specialists in Anderson must be made through the nurse; students who fail to observe this regulation will be penalized.

DAMAGE—Damage to furniture or walls must be paid for by the students who occupy the room. Students must not drive nails into the walls, paste pictures on them, write on them with fingernail polish, or otherwise mar them. The electric current in the dormitory rooms is not adapted for cooking and ironing—this must be done in rooms provided for such activities. Any repairs which are needed should be reported promptly to the house manager.

Fire Drills

Every member of the student body shall take part in fire drills, under the direction of the Student Government Association, to minimize the danger of fire. To avoid confusion and to make it possible to hear the orders of the officers there must be neither running nor talking. Failure to obey this rule shall be reported to the Fire Chief at once, and by her to the student Council, for punishment as a misdemeanor.

On the summons of the bell, each girl shall close the windows of her room, leave the door open and the light on, and carry a towel. She shall go down the stairs designated as the exit for the particular portion of the building in which she is, and shall report her name to the Lieutenant of that corridor. The Captains and Lieutenants are held responsible for seeing that all students get out in orderly fashion. The names of those missing from, or added to, the roll call shall be given to the Fire Chief as soon as possible. Any one who has missed roll call must report immediately to the Fire Chief.

When fire drills are called during class time, students shall leave the buildings by exits designated by the Fire Chief for the particular portion of the building in which they are. No roll will be called; it shall be the duty of the Fire Chief and her officers to ascertain that the buildings have been emptied.

Guests

The entertainment of visitors is a privilege granted when convenient to the management, and after permission has been obtained from the Dean. Overnight guests may be entertained only on week-ends. The crowded condition of the college makes it inconvenient to have parents and older friends as overnight guests in the dormitories; whenever possible, reservations should be made for them in hotels in Anderson. Guests are entertained at the following rates: 50 cents for each overnight guest, 35 cents for breakfast, 45 cents for lunch, 60 cents for dinner, and 75 cents for Sunday or Guest Night dinners.

Calling hours begin on Sunday at 4 P. M.; parents who live at a distance may see their daughters in the parlors before 4 o'clock, but no callers may be taken during quiet hour to the dormitories. Students are requested not to take fathers or brothers to the dormitories except to carry luggage.

Permissions

Special permission from parents upon each occasion is needed for certain off-campus activities; for others the General Permission Blank suffices.

SPECIAL PERMISSION is needed for the following activities:

1. For overnight visits at places other than the student's own home. A written invitation from the hostess is also required, both permission and invitation to be mailed directly to the Dean's office upon each occasion, unless arrangement is made with the Dean in particular cases. Week-end permissions and invitations should reach her not later than Friday. Telegrams and telephone messages will be accepted only in cases of emergency.
2. For traveling from the college to make visits, if the travel arrangements involve riding unchaperoned with a man in a private car.
3. For the big dances at Clemson, such as the Autumn Ball or the Mid-Winter, or for special dances on other campuses. Permissions by telephone are not acceptable.

THE GENERAL PERMISSION BLANK, filled out by parents and filed in the Dean's office, covers the following off-campus activities:

1. To spend week-ends at home, provided that the student's academic average does not fall below C.

2. To ride to and from town with women acquaintances.
3. To ride with parents of roommate, of suitemates, of other students, or with adult town hostesses.
4. To accept invitations for visits or meals at homes in Anderson.
5. To attend sports events on other campuses.
6. To attend socials and parties at Clemson.
7. To dance, when dancing is included at such parties.

A COLLEGIANNE PERMISSION BLANK will be sent to the parents of CollegiAnnes, to file in the Dean's office the parents' consent to or disapproval of the CollegiAnne privileges of double dating and of leaving the college on a single date unchaperoned, and to record the names of the men who have their approval as escorts when the date involves riding to and from a destination in Anderson in a private car.

Post Office

If students wish to give their college Post Office box number to their correspondents, they should request the latter to put College Post Office Box on the envelope; otherwise confusion is caused with the city Post Office boxes. At mail delivery times students must not block the passage through West Colonnade; they should take their mail to less congested places to read. They must keep their voices quiet enough not to disturb people in the Dean's office or in West Dormitory. They should be orderly enough not to drop torn bits of paper on the floor—there is a waste basket in the colonnade. Only those students who are appointed to do so may sort or put up mail; other students are requested not to enter the Post Office.

Signing Out

DAILY REGISTER—Students shall sign out in the Daily Register before leaving the campus and shall check off immediately upon returning. Each student should sign for herself; if she arranges for another person to sign for her, she must pay the penalty for any irregularity or forgetfulness which ensues.

DIETITIAN'S REGISTER—If a student plans to be absent from a meal, she must sign the Dietitian's Register in the following manner: after signing her name and checking the meal to be missed, she should not thereafter write her name again during the remainder of that week but should instead check later meals after her first signature, thus signing her name only once for the week, as the register pages are dated and changed by the week. The signing is to be done by twelve o'clock for a lunch to be missed and by four o'clock for dinner, to let the dietitian know how many tables will be required. For week-end meals to be missed, students are requested to sign as early in the week as possible in order to eliminate waste in purchasing food.

WEEK-END REGISTER—Students who plan to spend the week-end at home must sign the Dean's Week-end Register by Thursday in order that she may notify their parents to expect them. Those who plan to spend the week-end at places other than their own homes must sign by Friday, in order that their permissions and invitations may be checked.

Smoking

Only those students may smoke whose parents send a written permission to the Dean. A student may not smoke outside of her room or in public places in town.

Study Hours

All students shall observe closed study hours from 7:00 to 9:00 P. M., and from 9:30 to 11:00 P. M.; on evenings of required entertainments, the study hours shall be from 7:00 P. M. until time for the entertainment, and from the close of the entertainment until 11:30 P. M. This means that students will study in their own suites, in the library, or in designated study or practice rooms. There must be no visiting during these hours; consultations concerning assignments or subjects may be made during the recreation period from 9:00 to 9:30 P. M. Students who are going out in the evening must study during the afternoon; they will be furnished with Study and Busy signs to be used when they do not wish to be disturbed. Quiet shall be observed on the halls and the campus during study hours, class hours, quiet hour on Sunday, and from light to rising bells.

Week-end Visiting

OVERNIGHT VISITING—For overnight visits at places other than home, special permission from parents and a written invitation from the hostess, both mailed directly to the Dean, are required on each occasion, unless arrangement is made with the Dean in particular cases. The permission from the parents must also include approval of the travel arrangements if the latter involve riding unchaperoned with a man in a private car.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON VISITING is on the same basis as visiting on weekday afternoons.

SATURDAY EVENING VISITING at private homes in Anderson is not encouraged, as the city is crowded on that evening. The usual activity on Saturday evening for students who are not using a CollegiAnne dating privilege is going to the movies in chaperoned groups. Individual students who wish to make visits at private homes on Sat-

Friday evenings may do so by fulfilling the requirements for overnight visiting: permission from parents and invitation from hostess mailed to the Dean upon each occasion.

SUNDAY VISITING—Students may accept invitations for meals or for afternoon visits at homes in town on Sunday, provided that their parents have signified their approval on the General Permission Blank, and that the students observe Off-Campus Regulations. If they are to be absent from the college for a meal, they must sign the dietitian's register. Afternoon visiting hours begin immediately after church and end at six o'clock; students should leave the college before or after, but not during, Quiet Hour, and in signing out must give name, address, and telephone number of their hostess. If they wish to make evening visits, or afternoon visits extending beyond six o'clock, they must secure the Dean's permission and approval of their chaperonage arrangements before the close of the last office hour preceding the visit. A group of students who wish to go to an approved restaurant in town for Sunday night supper may do so by making the required arrangement with a student chaperon.

OFF-CAMPUS REGULATIONS

College Standards

Students are under Student Government regulations from the time of their arrival in the city of Anderson to the time of their leaving the city. They must report immediately to the college upon arriving in the city after week-end visits or vacations; this may be done by a telephone call to the Dean's office if they wish to make calls or to do errands before returning to the campus. When leaving the campus for an out of town visit, they must have the permission both of the Dean and of their parents if their travel arrangements involve riding unchaperoned with a man in a private car. They are expected upon every occasion in town to conduct themselves in accordance with the standards maintained at the college.

Off - Campus Chaperonage

When calling or making overnight visits in town, students must comply with the following chaperonage regulations, exceptions to which may be made only with the knowledge and consent both of the Dean and of the student's parents.

CollegiAnnes may use their privilege of going out unchaperoned on a date, with a man approved by their parents, but must announce their plans and the name of their escort in advance to the Dean. If the opportunity occurred unexpectedly so that there was no chance to announce plans in advance, or if a change was made in the plans announced in advance, a report must be given to the Dean within a day after their return to the college. If this condition is not observed, the CollegiAnne will lose the privilege of dating unchaperoned either on or off the campus. The transportation regulations are the same as for leaving the campus on a date unchaperoned: the CollegiAnne may ride unchaperoned in a private car with an escort approved by her parents to and from a destination in Anderson only, but may not go riding for pleasure.

Students who do not have the privilege of going out on a date unchaperoned from the college may not do so from the home of a hostess in town. They may, however, use the CollegiAnne privilege of Double Dating: if a resident student is visiting a town student or a home where there are young people, a party of two or more couples, arranged with the approval of the town hostess, may go out together. When they go to a late show on Saturday evening they must go home after the show: resident students are not permitted to loiter around town after midnight or to go riding. A resident student may not ask a town hostess to allow a pre-arranged party to meet at her house and leave from there.

Off - Campus Automobile Riding

The Student Government regulations concerning automobile riding apply to resident students calling or visiting in town, with the following modifications. A resident student may go riding with her town hostess, or with an adult chaperon provided by the town hostess. When two or more couples are going out together without adult chaperonage, the resident student in such a group may ride to and from a destination in Anderson only, but may not go riding for entertainment except under this condition: that the student have her parents send a letter to the Dean, to be kept on file in her office, both permitting this activity and assuming all responsibility in case of accident.

SOCIAL STANDARDS

During the spring of 1946 the students of Anderson College held a series of open forum discussions on Good Manners, under the direction of the Social Standards Board. The aim of these talks was two-fold. The first was to bring about an immediate improvement in the manners seen on the campus by making each student fully conscious of the desirability of having gracious manners; by giving education in a delicate subject by the painless process of letting each individual absorb from the impersonal discussions the training individually needed; by giving warning to the ill-mannered by letting her see ungracious acts as they appeared in the eyes of her fellow-students. The second aim was to prepare a code of conduct approved by college students; that code is given in the following pages.

THE STUDENT OFF CAMPUS

1. The Student on the Streets

It is ill-mannered to:

Be loud or boisterous

Chew gum in public

Eat on the street

Drop debris of any kind

Become acquainted with strange men

We make a reputation for ourselves, for our parents, and for our college by the way we behave in public. People observe us and form opinions about us when we do not realize that we are being watched.

2. The Student on the Bus

It is ill-mannered to:

Push

Be noisy or conspicuous

Assume undignified positions

Talk to the driver

A student with gracious manners is poised and reserved on the bus; gives her seat to her elders; assists those who are incapacitated.

3. The Student in Church

It is ill-mannered to:

Whisper, rustle paper, read

Stare around

Chew gum

Disturb others by late arrival or early departure

Be ungracious about letting others pass to seats beyond

A student with gracious manners will show by her reverent attitude that she came to church to worship God.

4. The Student in Restaurants

It is ill-mannered to:

Hang around

Be noisy or conspicuous

Become acquainted with strange men

Keep a table too long

Use unconventional table manners

Apply cosmetics in public

The gracious student is courteous to the waitress, patient, and dignified.

5. The Student in the Stores

It is ill-mannered to:

Be rude to salespeople

Buy in haste and

Exchange purchases unnecessarily

Get lipstick on dresses being tried on

The gracious student when shopping is appreciative of the assistance of salespeople and considerate of their feelings and energy.

6. The Student in the Movies

It is ill-mannered to:

Whisper

Rustle paper

Slump in one's seat

Put feet into back of person in front

Wear hat which blocks view

Drop debris on floor

The gracious student is considerate of her neighbors and does nothing to disturb them.

7. The Student on Week-end Visits

It is ill-mannered to:

Hint for an invitation

Fail to answer an R. S. V. P. invitation

Arrive late

Stay too long

Be self-centered

Be lazy when help with work is needed

Fail to write thank-you note promptly

The gracious student when visiting is observant of the ways of the household and fits into them; is unfailingly courteous; considers the preferences of others before her own; helps with the work when help is needed; maintains her share of the conversation at table and elsewhere, but does not monopolize it; takes part enthusiastically in planned entertainment; smokes only in her bedroom, unless her hostess smokes and invites her to do so; tips the servants before she leaves.

THE STUDENT ON THE CAMPUS

8. The Student on the Grounds

It is ill-mannered to:

Ignore strangers

Drop debris

The gracious student is helpful to strangers, and does not merely give a needed direction but if possible interrupts her own activities personally to conduct the stranger to the desired person or place; introduces herself to guests of the college and is a cordial hostess; does not drop debris herself, and as a good citizen takes personal responsibility for the good order of her campus.

9. The Student in the Halls and on the Stairs

It is ill-mannered to:

Greet faculty members with a "Hey"

Fail to give a salutation when passing people

Disturb people in offices or classrooms

Block a passage as part of an unobservant group

Push

Bump people while walking reading

Stand talking on the stairs

Go up stairs on the wrong side

Leave books on stairs—a danger hazard

Precede faculty members through doorways

Remain seated when President Denmark passes

Look grouchy

The gracious student greets people with a pleasant, conventional salutation, like "Good Morning;" keeps a cheerful attitude in public, no matter what her inner feelings are; apologizes if she inadvertently bumps somebody; is observant and considerate of the rights of others in a common passageway; rises when talking to an older person who is standing; rises when President Denmark passes; not only does not drop paper or other debris on the floors herself, but as a good citizen picks up papers dropped by poorly trained students and feels a personal responsibility for the good order of the halls and public rooms of her College.

10. The Student in Chapel

It is ill-mannered to:

- Chew gum
- Whisper
- Read letters or study
- Slide down on one's backbone
- Move restlessly

The gracious student is attentive in chapel; gives response to the speaker by her facial expression; sits erect; is mindful that the College will often be judged by visiting speakers and artists by the attitude of its students in chapel.

11. The Student in the Classroom

It is ill-mannered to:

- Chew gum
- Whisper or talk when instructor is present
- Slide down on one's backbone
- Put feet on seat in front
- Distract attention of other students
- Doodle
- Write notes
- Make irritating noises
- Shake fountain pen on floor
- Leave when bell rings before being dismissed

Open or close windows to suit one's individual comfort

Hand in papers which are untidy, illegible, or written in pencil

Break appointments

The gracious student realizes that the instructor must often feel as though he were addressing a blank wall, hence the gracious student facilitates teaching and makes it a joy to the instructor by indicating by her facial expression whether or not she understands; gives courteous attention voluntarily, not expecting a college instructor to keep her in order as though she were still a small child; ceases talking when the instructor enters the room or is present; rises if President Denmark or a guest speaker enters the room; considers the comfort and health of others in the ventilation of the classroom, discussing any problem of ventilation with the instructor instead of opening or closing windows; sits erect because good posture is conducive to health and concentration, while lounging in class is an attitude of disrespect to the instructor; displays a spirit of helpfulness in such services as caring for windows and erasing blackboards.

12. The Student in the Dining Room

It is ill-mannered to:

Push through door ahead of faculty members who are near

Block passage to tables by stopping to talk

Begin to eat before hostess does

Carry on private conversation

Talk critically or boastfully

Either monopolize conversation or be too silent

Laugh or talk too loudly

Be grouchy

Sit badly or relax on table

Take so large a portion that too little remains for others

Pass dishes without looking

Hold table silver in awkward and unconventional ways

The gracious student realizes that she shares with the hostess the duty of maintaining worthwhile conversation at the table; is attentive to the needs of others; pulls out and holds the hostess' chair; employs one of the two recognized usages of handling table silver.

13. The Student in the Dormitories

It is ill-mannered to:

Bang doors, shattering both to human nerves and to plaster walls

Be loud or boisterous

Whistle

Run through halls, jump down steps

Play radios loudly

Be inconsiderate with typewriters

Knock loudly on doors

Enter a student's room when she is not in

Undress with shades up

Borrow clothing or money

Break a Busy sign

Awaken others by noise late at night or early in morning

Damage furniture or equipment

The gracious student realizes that the dormitories are places for rest, study, and quiet relaxation, and that she shares them with other students and with members of the faculty; hence she is mindful at all times of the feelings and rights of others. She is especially careful if she returns from an entertainment after light bell, or goes to the infirmary during the night, to move through the halls so quietly that she will not awaken other people; likewise if she rises early, she guards her movement to protect the sleep of others. She shares the work with her roommate in a fair manner, and maintains a neat dwelling-place.

14. The Student at the Post Office

It is ill-mannered to:

Push to get to one's box
Request mail to be put up
Be noisy
Block passage through West Colonnade
Drop paper on the floor

The gracious student awaits her turn, collects her mail, and takes it to less congested places to read.

15. The Student at the Telephone

It is ill-mannered to:

Ask who is speaking before giving one's own name
Say O. K. or Uh Huh
Talk too long when others also wish to use the phone

The gracious student remembers that the voice reveals much concerning the personality, keeps her voice modulated pleasantly, and uses good English.

16. The Student Entertaining Guests

It is ill-mannered to:

Subject guests to embarrassment by failure to pay for their room or meals

Fail to inform guests of college regulations which concern them

The gracious student observes college regulations concerning guests; asks the permission of the instructor before taking guests to visit a class and introduces the guests to the instructor; plans carefully the entertainment of her guests.

17. The Student on a Date

It is ill-mannered to:

Allow men to take personal liberties: "necking" and "petting" are bad form

A gracious student can be vivacious and good company on a date, and still behave like a gentlewoman. If a man takes her to a place of which she does not approve, she does not hesitate to ask him to take her away. She remembers that the residents of Anderson judge Anderson College by the behaviour of its students in public, and that when girls are dating, people are even more discriminating in their criticism.

18. The Student's Dress and Grooming

The well-bred student keeps her clothing cleaned and her person well groomed. She chooses her clothes to fit the occasion; she may wear shirt tails in her leisure hours, but she knows that, when she goes to town, people judge the college by her appearance as well as by her behaviour. She realizes that it is a mark of disrespect to the instructor to go to class sloppily dressed. She prepares for dinner each night by being neat, clean, and appropriately dressed.

Freshmen

1. TOWN - RESIDENT EXCHANGE VISITS—Town students may spend week-ends in the dormitories with resident students and resident students may visit the homes of town students on a visiting-exchange plan. All week-end guests in the dormitories must be registered in advance in the Dean's office.
2. TWO AFTERNOONS—Resident students may have two afternoons from 2:00 to 6:00 each week for shopping, calling in Anderson, bowling, or attending the movies, provided that no college duties are missed. Only Collegiannes with a B average and Council members may go to town alone.
3. WALKING LIMITS—On other afternoons after their last class students may walk within Walking Limits, which are the streets and roads within a half-mile radius of the college.
4. LATE LEAVE—Students who have college work until 4:00 P. M. may substitute Late Leave for an afternoon from 2:00 to 6:00, returning to the college not later than 7:00 P. M., provided that they notify the dietitian in advance.
5. WEEK - ENDS—Students whose academic average does not fall below C may, with the approval of their parents indicated on the General Permission blank, spend every week-end at home, provided that they sign the Dean's week-end register by Thursday, in order that she may notify their parents to expect them. Week-end visits to friends in town are limited to two a month, under the conditions detailed in Off-Campus Regulations and Permissions. Students who have service scholarships are limited in their week-end visiting by the requirements of their scholarship. Students who plan to be absent from the college for the week-end are requested to sign the dietitian's register as early as possible, in order to eliminate waste in purchasing food. Week-end privileges will be forfeited by failure to comply with regulations, or will be curtailed if the student at any time is doing unsatisfactory academic work.

6. LONG WEEK - END—Students may have one long week-end a semester, from the close of their last class on Friday morning until Monday morning. Long week-ends should be kept for family emergencies. A student may not take a long week-end if by so doing she must miss a class from which she has been absent for the number of times which the class meets a week, except with the permission of the Dean upon recommendation of the instructor.
7. DATING—Students may receive young men on the upper campus and in the college parlors on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, and in the college parlors during these evenings, but shall not hold conversation with them elsewhere. Students are responsible for the conduct of the men whom they entertain at the college. They are requested not to allow their callers to smoke in the halls and parlors. The permission of the Dean and a faculty chaperon are in general necessary when a student leaves the campus with a young man, but Council members may with the Dean's approval assist with this chaperonage duty when a faculty chaperon is not available. Evening receiving hours close at 10:30 P. M.
8. SATURDAY EVENINGS—Groups of three or more students chaperoned by a Council member or a Sophomore Collegiate who is on the list of accredited student chaperons may go to the movies on Saturday evenings.

9. FILLING STATION—Students may go to the Boulevard filling stations from 9:00 A. M. to 7:00 P. M. This privilege will be withdrawn at any time from a student who abuses it.
10. SPENDING NIGHT IN OTHER SUITES—They may visit other students on week-end and holiday nights by signing in the House President's Spend-the-Night Book.
11. TELEPHONE—They may use the telephone during the afternoon and during recreation periods, but not during study and quiet hours, meal times, or after light bell; a telephone conversation should be limited to five minutes. Permission must be obtained from the Dean for the sending of telegrams and long-distance calls; such calls are to be made over the pay telephone.

Sophomores

Privileges are cumulative; students in each classification receive the privileges of the preceding groups in addition to the special privileges of their own group.

1. Sophomores may have three afternoons for shopping, calling in Anderson, bowling, or attending the movies.
2. Those whose average grade for the previous semester is C or above and who have not failed in any subject may substitute one evening at the movies for an afternoon, in groups of three or more chaperoned by a Council member or a Sophomore CollegiAnne who is on the list of accredited student chaperons. Students who are going out in the evening must study during the afternoon; they should place a study sign on their doors in order not to be disturbed. They may not spend in town an evening on which college entertainments are scheduled. This privilege will be withdrawn at any time from a student who is doing unsatisfactory academic work.

CollegiAnnes

1. CollegiAnnes may have sophomore privileges.
2. They may use the telephone at their convenience between rising and light bells, except during study and quiet hours or meal times.
3. They may cut meals or have meals in town at approved restaurants, provided that they notify the dietitian in advance. If they wish to have lunch in town, their afternoon may begin at the close of the fourth period; it ends at 6 o'clock. If CollegiAnnes who are taking a night out wish to have dinner in town, their evening may begin at 6 o'clock.
4. CollegiAnnes whose average grade for the previous semester is B or above and who have not failed in any subject:
 - a. May shop at their convenience before 6 P. M., provided that no college duties are neglected.
 - b. May have one extra long week-end each semester. Two long week-ends should not be taken in the same quarter.
5. CollegiAnnes may have the following dating privileges on Saturdays or Sundays, provided that their parents have signified their approval on the special CollegiAnne permission blank on file in the Dean's office:
 - A. They may DOUBLE DATE unchaperoned away from the college under these conditions:
 - a. Two or more couples must remain together. Each student must file a Double Dating Privilege blank before leaving.
 - b. They may go to church on Sunday evening, to an approved eating place in town, or to the movies, but to no other destination.

- c. They may walk along the direct routes to town or may ride on the bus, but may not ride in private cars.
- B. They may SINGLE DATE unchaperoned away from the college under these conditions:
 - a. The Collegi-Anne must file a Single Dating Privilege blank in the Dean's office before the close of the last office hour preceding the date, and must comply with any changes or conditions made by the Dean. Arrangements must be made in advance—last minute requests will entail forfeiture of this privilege; students should explain to friends the conditions under which they may leave the college on a date unchaperoned.
 - b. Escorts are to be instructed to meet the student in the Administration Building and are to be presented to the faculty member of the Dean's staff on duty.
 - c. If the student wishes to ride in a private car with her escort to a destination in town, she may do so only if her parents have indicated their approval of the specific man on the special CollegiAnne permission blank on file in the Dean's office. This permission is for riding to and from a destination in Anderson only—students may not go riding for pleasure.

Failure to carry out the conditions for leaving the college on a date without chaperonage will entail loss of the privilege.

Council Members

1. Council members may shop at their convenience.
2. They may make long-distance calls and send telegrams at their own discretion. They may receive incoming telephone calls during study and quiet hours, but may not make out-going calls.

3. They may keep their lights on after light bell.
4. They may have dates in East and West Dens.
5. They may attend social functions or entertainments in town, but must secure the Dean's approval and must conform to any conditions which she requires.
6. They may leave the college on a date unchaperoned one afternoon or evening during the week, under the conditions outlined for Collegiannes.

In the event that duties and privileges conflict, it is required that duties be given priority.

SYSTEM OF PENALTY POINTS

When penalties are not prescribed by Student Government regulations, the student Councils impose such penalties for unsocial conduct as, in their judgment, are to the best interest of the college and the student concerned.

Five penalty points in any two-week period automatically entail being campused. Restriction is imposed for more serious offenses or for continued offenses.

All points are posted on the Student Government bulletin board; all penalties accruing therefrom are announced to the student body. Notice of restriction and the reason therefor are given to the administration for the notification of parents.

A campused student may not use the telephone, have dates, be on the front campus or in the main halls during receiving hours, attend social gatherings, or be present at entertainments except those required by the administration. She may not leave the campus except to attend church or to do emergency errands; for the latter she must have the permission of the President of the Resident Association, and must conform to any directions given by the President.

A restricted student may not exercise any of the above privileges and in addition forfeits for the remainder of the school year the privilege of holding office or of representing the college in any public capacity.

Violation of any penalty shall extend it one week.

Penalty Points

ONE PENALTY POINT GIVEN FOR:

1. Noise during school, study, or quiet hours.
2. Failure to sign in the House President's spend-the-night book.
3. Breaking study sign without permission from the House President.
4. Failure to conform to the Dean's instructions concerning dress.
5. Untidy suite.
6. Out of room after light bell.
7. Light left burning when occupant has left room.

TWO PENALTY POINTS GIVEN FOR:

1. Failure to sign out in the student register when leaving the campus or to sign in upon returning.
2. Failure to sign out in the dietitian's register when absent from a meal.
3. Lights on after light bell.
4. Going to town more than the allotted number of times.
5. Returning late to the campus at 6:00, 7:00, or 10:30 P. M.

THREE PENALTY POINTS GIVEN FOR:

1. Unexcused absence from chapel, class, practice, Student Government Association meeting, required entertainment, Sunday school, or church.
2. Visiting during study hour.
3. Unsatisfactory self-help work. Restriction or forfeiture of service scholarships will be imposed at the discretion of the College administrative officers for continued failure to meet requirements of the scholarship.

FIVE PENALTY POINTS GIVEN FOR:

1. Failure to conform to regulations about automobile riding.

Restriction

The following offenses are considered serious and call for severe penalties at the discretion of the Student Council guided by the Faculty Executive Committee: lying, cheating, stealing, false registration, forgery of names to permissions or invitations.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT

Student Government

High school students are, like college students, under Student Government regulations. They are bound by the provisions of the Constitution and the By-Laws, and have a representative upon the Resident Student Government Council. They are eligible after one semester of residence to take upon themselves the requirements of the voluntary Honor System at Anderson College, if they fulfill the qualifications for membership in the Collegiannes, as set forth in Article IX of the Constitution. Like the college students, they take their turn at serving as Proctor, and they have a High School Marshal, elected by the Preparatory Department at the beginning of the school year; the duties of Proctors and Marshals are given in the By-Laws.

College Regulations

High school students are under the same general regulations as the college students, as detailed in College Regulations, page 27.

Organizations and Clubs

High school students are eligible for membership in most of the college organizations and clubs, the only exceptions being those which are limited by their nature to college students. They may in addition have high school clubs of their own.

Privileges

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS may have the privileges of college freshmen, as detailed on page 51.

HIGH SCHOOL COLLEGIANNES may have three afternoons from 1:30 to 6:00 each week for shopping, calling in Anderson, bowling, or attending the movies, provided that no school duties are missed.

HIGH SCHOOL COLLEGIANNES WHO HAVE DURING THE PRECEDING QUARTER HAD NO GRADE LOWER THAN C may substitute one evening at the movies for an afternoon, in groups of three or more chaperoned by a Council member or a Sophomore CollegiAnne who is on the list of accredited chaperons.

HIGH SCHOOL COLLEGIANNES WHOSE AVERAGE GRADE FOR THE PREVIOUS SEMESTER IS B or above and who have not failed in any subject may have one extra long week-end each semester.

HIGH SCHOOL COLLEGIANNES WHO HAVE BEEN IN RESIDENCE FOR A YEAR OR MORE may have the following dating privileges on Saturdays or Sundays, provided that their parents have signified their approval on the special CollegiAnne permission blank on file in the Dean's office:

- A. They may DOUBLE DATE unchaperoned away from the college under these conditions:
 - a. Two or more couples must remain together. Each student must file a Double Dating Privilege blank before leaving.
 - b. They may go to church on Sunday evening, to an approved eating place in town, or to the movies, but to no other destination.
 - c. They may walk along the direct routes to town or made ride on the bus, but may not ride in private cars.
- B. They may SINGLE DATE unchaperoned away from the college under these conditions:
 - a. The CollegiAnne must file a Single Dating Privilege blank in the Dean's office before the close of the last office hour preceding the date, and must comply with any changes or conditions made by the Dean. Arrangements must be made in advance—last minute requests will entail forfeiture of this privilege; students should explain to friends the conditions under which they may leave the college on a date unchaperoned.

- c. If the student wishes to ride in a private car with her escort to a destination in town, she may do so only if her parents have indicated their approval of the specific man on the special CollegiAnne permission blank on file in the Dean's office. This permission is for riding to and from a destination in Anderson only—students may not go riding for pleasure.

Failure to carry out the conditions for leaving the college on a date without chaperonage will entail loss of the privilege.

COLLEGE ORGANIZATIONS AND CLUBS

CollegiAnnes

The CollegiAnnes are the self-governing members of the Student Government Association. Their appointment and requirements for membership are detailed in Article IX of the Constitution, their functions in Section II of the By-Laws, and their prerogatives in Class Privileges.

The Denmark Society

The Denmark Society is the honor society of Anderson College. Membership is limited to Sophomores of outstanding character and achievement; the qualifications are detailed in Article IX of the Constitution. The members are known as Danes.

The Baptist Student Union

It is through the Baptist Student Union that the religious activities on the campus are correlated. Its purpose is the promotion of the spiritual lives of the students. Everyone is given opportunity for active Christian services. The Union endeavors to enlist students in the church service, the Sunday school, Young Peoples' Organizations, and the Young Woman's Auxiliary.

The Women's Athletic Association

The W. A. A. sponsors tournaments and games in hockey, soccer, volleyball, basket ball, baseball, ping pong, badminton, track, tennis, ring tennis, table tennis, horseshoes, shuffleboard, hockey golf, and archery. Its social calendar includes supper hikes, parties, tumbling, and acrobatic exhibitions. Letters are awarded to students winning the necessary number of points.

The Yodler

The Yodler is the campus newspaper, published monthly or more frequently by the students of Anderson College. Writing for the publication affords opportunity for experience to those who are interested in journalism. Every student receives the newspaper, the subscription being included in the student activities fee.

The Columns

The Columns is the Year Book published by the students of Anderson College. It attempts to make a record of the varied student interests.

Phi Theta Kappa

In 1932 the Anderson College chapter, Beta Pi, was granted a national charter by the Grand Council of the Phi Theta Kappa. This junior college honor scholarship society, corresponding to Phi Beta Kappa for four-year colleges, has chapters in numerous accredited junior colleges throughout the United States. A student to be eligible must be within the scholastic upper ten per cent of the students enrolled in the college division. The local chapter issues invitations to students carrying 2.50 quality points for each semester hour of credit, which is a B-|-average. To maintain active membership a student must at the end of any given semester have a grade point ratio of not less than 2, whirh is a B average.

Alpha Pi Epsilon

Alpha Pi Epsilon is the national honorary secretarial society for colleges. Its chief phrpose is to professionalize the status of the college-trained secretary. The society stresses superior achievement in stenography and stimulates a salutary interest in the field by bringing together students outstanding in secretarial subjects. It encourages its members to carry high ideals into business relations. The Sigma Chapter organized at Anderson College in May 1941 is the only chapter of this national organization in South Carolina. A student to be eligible must make a grade of A on shorthand and a B on all other subjects.

The Commercial Club

The Commercial Club is composed of students registered in the Commercial Department. Its purpose is to promote the welfare of the members and of the department.

The International Relations Club

The International Relations Club of Anderson College is a charter member of the Southern Association and regularly sends representatives to its meetings. The membership is made up of students who are especially interested in history and international relations. A student to be eligible must have an average of A in Social Science subjects and an average of B in all other subjects.

The Town Club

The day students at Anderson College are eligible for membership in the Town Club. The officers, the members, and the treasury are identical with those of the Town Student Government Association. The Town Club provides for the recreational activities of the day students. It has been the custom each year for the members of the Town Club to give a musical revue.

J. H. A.

The Junior Homemakers Association, known as the J. H. A., is a state organization of girls and other individuals interested in home economics, sponsored by the Home Economics Division of the State Department of Education. The organization gives girls an excellent opportunity to develop group leadership and fellowship.

The Drama Club

The Drama Club is open to students interested in this type of work. It is one of the most outstanding clubs in Anderson College. The members, under a trained director, receive training in acting, directing, stage-managing, and make-up. Bi-monthly meetings are held and public performances are given.

Delta Psi Omega

The purpose of the Delta Psi Omega is to elevate the standards of school dramatics. A student of satisfactory scholarship who has participated in a major role of a stage or radio play, or who has done efficient work as a stage or business manager, or who has written a play which has been produced, or who has done work of such merit and quality as to be approved by the director, shall be eligible for membership.

The College Choir

The College Choir, open to students who are interested in choral and ensemble work, receives excellent training from the Head of the Voice Department. The Choir is much in demand for programs in the city and surrounding country.

The Cosmopolitan Club

The Cosmopolitan Club is a social club composed of students who live in states other than South Carolina.

The Hobby Club

The Hobby Club is an informal organization made up of students who are interested in exchanging "hobby ideas." It aims, also, to stimulate students to develop hobbies as a matter of personal interest and of personality development.

ACTIVITIES POINT SYSTEM

Offices held by the students shall be valued in points. No student may during the year hold offices amounting to more than 20 points. A student who fails in two subjects during any semester must resign all offices coming under the point system. The procedure for Spring Elections is described in Article V of the Constitution.

ANDERSON COLLEGE SONGS

Anderson College Girls

Greetings we bring to you
As now we sing to you,
Anderson College girls.

Love in our hearts for you.
We give our best to you,
Anderson College girls.

You drive the clouds away,
Bring sunshine with the day,
Anderson College girls.

Now life's a merry song,
All because you came along,
Anderson College girls.

Refrain:

Anderson College girls
Anderson College girls
Sweetest girls in all the world
We love you every one.
Bright with your sunny smile
You all the hours beguile;
Here's a kiss and here's a wish for every one.

—Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Sr.

October

The months are met with their crownlets on,
As Julius Caesar crown'd them;
With slaves, the gentlemen thirty-one,
And the ladies thirty, round them.
But who shall be monarch of all, you ask;
Go ask of the boys and maidens,
For that is the lads' and the lassies' task,
And they choose him afar in cadence.

Chorus:

October, October!
March to the dull and sober!
The suns of May for the children's play,
But give to us October,
October, October!

That Good Old Anderson Spirit

Give me that good old Anderson Spirit,
Give me that good old Anderson Spirit,
Give me that good old Anderson Spirit,
It's the best that can be had.

Made Miss Denmark our President,
Made Miss Denmark our President,
Made Miss Denmark our President,
And it'll do the same for me.

It got style for Miss Paschal,
It got style for Miss Paschal,
It got style for Miss Paschal,
And it'll get the same for me.

It made Mr. von Hasseln sprightly,
It made Mr. von Hasseln sprightly,
It made Mr. von Hasseln sprightly,
And it'll do the same for me.

Smiles

There are smiles from Indiana,
There are smiles from Idaho,
There are smiles from Maine to California,
There are smiles from the north to Mexico,
There are smiles all over this great nation,
Wheresoever may your footsteps fall;
But the smiles that come from Anderson College
Are the smiles that are best of all!

Spirit of B. S. U.

In our halls of learning Christ you did instill,
With His truth eternal you our hearts did fill.
Now we're ever eager goodly works to do;
In your service use us, Spirit of B. S. U.

In the midst of classes Christ we shall proclaim,
Lift our fellow students in the Saviour's name;
To the church we'll bind them, show them life anew,
With the strength you give us, Spirit of B. S. U.

We are all one body, tho' from east and west,
We would serve the Master, put us to the test.
Thus with hearts united, sin we shall subdue
With His love unfailing, Spirit of B. S. U.

Greetings to Anderson Freshmen

It's a fine thing to get together,
It's the right way to start.
It's a fine thing for us to be here
With gladness in each heart.
Greetings, you Anderson Freshmen!
Welcome from far and near!
It's a fine, fine thing to get together,
And we're glad you're here!

Crook Song

Once there was a Sophomore Class,
Sophomore Class, Sophomore Class,
Who had a crook.

They had them a crook, yes,
They had them a crook, you bet,
Once there was a Sophomore Class,
Who had a crook.

Found a little hiding place,
Hiding place, hiding place,
Found a little hiding place,
To put that crook.
They hid it for keeps, yes,
They hid it for keeps, you bet,
Found a little hiding place,
To put that crook.

Then the little Freshman Class,
Freshman Class, Freshman Class,
Then the little Freshman Class,
Looked for that crook.
They searched high and low, yes,
They searched high and low, you bet,
Then the little Freshman Class,
Looked for that crook.

Poor little Freshman Class,
Freshman Class, Freshman Class,
Poor little Freshman Class,
Wept for that crook.
They wept and they wailed, yes
They wept and they wailed, you bet,
Poor little Freshman Class
Wept for that crook.

Then upon Commencement Day,
Commencement Day, Commencement Day,
Then upon Commencement Day,
Who had that crook?
Why who but the Sophomores,
Why who but the Sophomores,
Then upon Commencement Day,
Who had that crook????

CollegiAnnes' Hymn

I would be true, for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure, for there are those who care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be friend of all—the foe, the friendless;
I would be giving, and forget the gift;
I would be humble, for I know my weakness;
I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift.

I would be prayerful thro' each busy moment;
I would be constantly in touch with God;
I would be tuned to hear the slightest whisper;
I would have faith to keep the path Christ trod.

Danes' Hymn

He who is noble, kind in thought and action,
Faithful to duty, pure, and single hearted,
Needs not a weapon, needs not man to guard him,
Virtue defends him.

What though he wander o'er the burning desert?
What though he journey o'er unfriendly mountain?
Sleeping or waking, though by death surrounded,
Virtue defends him.

GRACE AT MEALS

Father, we thank Thee for the food we eat;
We thank Thee for this fellowship sweet;
We thank Thee for mem'ries here that cling;
We thank Thee, Lord, for everything.
